"The Lieutenant of the Tower of London"

THE silhouette reproduced above was painted by Thomas Rowlandson in the latter half of the 18th Century. Whoever the Lieutenant was at that time, it is more than likely that his bankers were Cox and Co., since it was in 1758 that Lord Ligonier first appointed Mr. Richard Cox as Official Finance Agent, a function which continues to be discharged today by the Cox's and King's Branch of Lloyds Bank.

Uniforms and weapons have changed considerably since the 18th Century although not at the expense of regimental tradition. Similarly, the modern banking service now available at 6 Pall Mall still maintains a tradition of individual attention to customers' needs. An officer will find it invaluable to have his personal banking account at the Branch which has two hundred years' experience of dealing with military finance.

NOTICES

Under the provisions of the Army Act, 1881, Section 163 (1) (d), this Army List is evidence of the status and rank of the officers mentioned in it.

The lists of officers of the Regular Army Reserve of Officers and Territorial Army Reserve of Officers and of military recipients of the Victoria Cross are published separately in an Annual Supplement to The Army List issued early in each year.

Acting rank is now shown in this publication only in the case of officers of the Army Emergency Reserve and of the reconstituted Territorial Army, including the Territorial Army, General List, Sections A. and B.

The figures in square brackets thus [1] after the titles of Infantry regiments denote the former regimental districts to which the regiments belonged.

The badges, etc., borne on Regimental Colours are shown after the titles of Regiments, the "centre" badge being printed in heavy type. In the case of Regiments and Corps which do not carry Standards, Guidons or Colours, the badges, etc., shown after their titles are borne on their Clothing or Appointments.

The words subscribed to the titles of regiments, as "Peninsula," "Waterloo," "Neuve Chapelle," etc. denote the Honours awarded to such regiments in commemoration of their services. Those printed in heavy type are borne on their Standards or Colours, or, in the case of regiments having no Standards or Colours, on their Appointments.

The colour of uniform, etc., indicated is that of No. 1 dress except where otherwise stated.

As announced in London Gazette (Supplement) dated 22/8/47, all European Queen's Commissioned officers on the Active List of the Indian Army are deemed to have been appointed as from 15th August, 1947, to a Special List (ex Indian Army) British Army.

In the sections relating to the Army Emergency Reserve, where the date 24/8/39, in addition to the seniority date(s), is still shown against an officer's name it denotes that the officer has yet to be "released" from embodied service.

All communications on officers' personal entries in this List (other than those on obvious misprints) should be addressed, through official channels, to The Under-Secretary of State (O.D.O.), The War Office, Stanmore, Middlesex.

Communications regarding other matter appearing in this List should be addressed to The Under-Secretary of State (C.3. A.L.), The War Office, Stanmore, Middlesex.

Officers who succeed to peerages, baronetcies or courtesy titles are responsible for immediately notifying the fact to The Under-Secretary of State, The War Office (O.D.O.), in order that the necessary alterations may be made in the Army Lists and in the official records of the War Office.
